

Eindhoven Statement

DOCOMOMO'S main goals are brought together in the Eindhoven statement which was issued at the conclusion of the founding conference in 1990:

- Bring the significance of the modern movement to the attention of the public, the authorities, the professionals and the educational community concerned with the built environment.
- Identify and promote the recording of the works of the modern movement, including a register, drawings, photographs, archives and other documents.
- Foster the development of appropriate techniques and methods of conservation and disseminate this knowledge throughout the professions.
- Oppose destruction and disfigurement of significant works of the modern movement.
- Identify and attract funding for documentation and conservation.
- Explore and develop the knowledge of the modern movement.
