MODERNITY TOWARDS A BETTER FUTURE

Cheung Sha Wan Wholesale Vegetable Market, Hong Kong built in 1948.

Date: 26 October 2015 (Monday)
Time: 6:30 - 8:00 pm
Speaker: Dr. Ana Cristina dos Santos Tostoes
Venue: Room KB 229, 2/F, Knowles Building, Main Campus, The University of Hong Kong
Language: English
CPD Points: 1.5 CPD credit hours
Fees: No cost, but participants must register to attend on the HKICON website in advance (http://www.hkicon.org/joomla/)
About the CPD Talk:

This jointly sponsored HKICON and DOCOMOMO Hong Kong talk by Dr. Ana Tostoes, Chair of DOCOMOMO International, will focus on current trends in modern architecture and urbanism.

About the Speaker:

Dr. Ana Cristina dos Santos Tostoes

Dr. Ana Tostoes was born in Lisbon where she currently lives. She is an architect (ESBAL, 1982), architectural historian (UNL, 1994) and chair of DOCOMOMO International. As an Associate Professor at the Civil Engineering and Architecture Department of the Instituto Superior Tecnico, Universidade Tecnica des Lisboa, she is in charge of the architectural history and theory disciplines. Dr. Tostoes focuses her research on the history of architecture and the city of the twentieth century where she has developed an operative view oriented towards the conservation of modern architecture, focusing especially on post-war architectural, culture and relations between Iberian, African and American modernity.